J. F. GOLDSMITH, Esq.—Bear Sir: Your letter in relation to an improved trough for watering cattle and horses is received, and in reply, Mr. Bergh wishes me to say, that he has examined the model you sent, and that it meets with his entire approbation. Any device that will hadd, as this does, to the comfort of the lower animals, or lessen the inhuman neglect, that they too often receive at the hands of man, will find in him a cordial endorser.

Very respectfully yours,

HENRY BERGH, Jr.;

The only additional cost of this over any other rough, is about an hours extra labor in making they farmer can do it, and all oughtto.
